RETREAT LEADERSHIP

Coach Mark Collier

Mark graduated from Otterbein College, majored in Mathematics Education and minored in religion. He has taken classes at Walsh University, Andrew University, Ashland University, and has his Master's Degree in Education from Marygrove College. He has been married to Chris Collier for 22 years, and they have two children, Paul who is 10 years old and Adrienne who is 8.

Mark has coached football for 25 years preparing young men for battles on the field and in life. He has been with six different play-off teams and one final four appearance. Mark was sued by the ACLU for praying with football players at London before coming to Heath as the head coach. Mark has had the opportunity to speak at Full Gospel Businessmen Fellowship International, Promise Keepers events, and other church revivals.

ACCOMODATIONS

The retreat fee includes breakfast & lunch on Saturday, T-shirt, a pillow, bed linens & towels, as well as all handouts. Please bring clothes and toiletries, a Bible, snacks or drinks to share for the Friday evening light supper & fellowship time, and an open heart.

Hostel-Dorm Style ($70.00) For those gregarious folks who prefer sharing their space with lots of people, there are over 50 beds in one very large first floor room with an abundance of showers and sinks.

Single Room ($85.00) For those who would like some extra peace and quiet, coupled with the privacy of their own room, there are a limited number of private rooms available, most of which are located on the second floor that share a common living room and a large bathroom with two showers, sinks and toilets.

Double Room ($75.00) For those who would like to attend the retreat and socialize in smaller groups of people, there are a limited number of double rooms available, most but not all of which have their own bathrooms. Please note who you would like as your roommate. Please be sure to make your reservations early, as space particularly for single and double rooms is limited. All room assignments will be made on a first-come, first served, space available basis.
